

Privacy Policy & Terms of Use

Introduction

This privacy policy explains how the GM Healthcare Academy website (www.gmhealthcareacademy.org.uk) collects and uses information about people, why it uses it, and how we make sure the information is kept safe. The policy also explains the terms of use for this website.

GDPR privacy, data protection & cookies

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) came into effect across the European Union (EU) on 25th May 2018. GDPR strengthens privacy regulations and gives people in the EU new rights over the information that organisations hold about them. (Read more.)

We have a legal duty to protect the information we collect about you via this website. We collect information where necessary, e.g. to provide services or book you onto events, and only use it for the purposes for which it was collected. We follow strict security standards to keep your information safe and will not share it with other parties without your consent, except where necessary to deliver a service (e.g. to award qualifications / certificates).

We may also collect information or use it under exemptions to GDPR. These include:

- You have given us explicit consent to use it (e.g. you signed up to our mailing list, giving us consent to communicate with you).
- Where we have the right because of a contract with you.
- Where we have a legal or statutory obligation to use or share information.
- We have a legitimate interest i.e. a legitimate reason for using it.

Site cookies

Cookies are small pieces of data that are downloaded when you visit a website. Our website is built on the Squarespace platform and uses cookies that help people navigate around and use the website, as well as cookies that help us improve the website and make it easier for you to find what you need by helping us understand how people navigate around it. (Find out more about Squarespace cookies.)

You can change your browser settings to disable cookies but this may mean you cannot access some features and affect how well websites (including this one) function for you. Your internet browser's help/support pages explain how to disable cookies:

Google Analytics

Like many websites, we use Google Analytics to help us improve our website by understanding more about how people use the site. Google Analytics records data about the way users access our website, how long they spend on it, which pages they visit, and so on. We produce reports that aggregate this data to help us make it easier for people to use the website and find the information they're looking for. Your browser may allow you to opt out of Google Analytics. Find out more.

Terms of use

- This website is copyright of GM Healthcare Academy, and all resources, files and images on this website are copyright of GM Healthcare Academy and/or the organisations that developed or own them. This includes logos. Our copyright statement explains more.
- We take all reasonable efforts to keep this website up to date and accurate. Contact us if you spot anything that is inaccurate, out of date or not working properly (e.g. broken links).
- We include links to other sites and information, where relevant. We take no responsibility for other websites or the content on them.
- Our privacy policy and terms of use only apply to this website (www.gmhealthcareacademy.org.uk). They do not apply to sites to which we include links.
- We cannot guarantee uninterrupted access to this website and take no responsibility for access to other sites which may be linked.
- We take all reasonable precautions to ensure that content on this site is virus-free and cannot take responsibility for any damage, data loss or disruption you may experience from material derived from this website.
